Crusaders Install Officers

New officers for the Crusaders, young people's organization of the Harbor City Foursquare Church, were installed in the Crusader's Chapel by the church pastor, Rev. Marion Piles.

Kathryn Sudduith was inducted as president succeeding Harold Duncan. Others taking office were Harold Duncan, vice-president; Mrs. J. C. Tyler, missionary captain; John Barber, membership captain; Barbara Curren, social captain and Mrs. James McEwen, secretary and treasurer.

Camp Fire Girls Tell of Success

"With the time only half gone more than half the goal has been reached in our second annual Camp Fire Girls Candy Mint Sale," Mrs. Leland J. Durfy, mint chairman, announced today.

"Through the excellent cooperation of the various service clubs, Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club Girls have been able to sell much quicker and easier than anticipated," Mrs. Durfy added.

The sale of candy mints by the Camp Fire Girls began January 9 and will close January 28. Purpose of the sale is to supplement the budget in order to extend the Camp Fire Girls program to more girls.

A number of girls have earned the ten days at Camp Yallani by selling 100 boxes.

"Little girl, breathless from school, Mother, hurry and sew more buttons on my coat so I can marry a rich man."

Famous Stage Comedy to Be Presented

In a theatrical season that promises a scarcity of comedy stage entertainment, theatergoers should find Monty Woolley's performance in the Moss-Hart-George S. Kaufman comedy, "The Man Who Came to Dinner" at the Biltmore Theater beginning Tuesday night, February 7, a delightful interlude. Matinees will be presented on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Engagement closes on February 18.

The role of "Sheridan Whiteside," as created by Mr. Woolley in the original production which he played for two years on Broadway, was hailed as an outstanding performance in the history of our theater. A characterization described as benign and comfortable and whimsical, Mr. Woolley gives his part charm and warmth. His "Whiteside" is quite a lovable old party, who often says awful things as though they had ripped automatically off his tongue, before he quite realizes what they mean... nevertheless there is a ring of ripe good humor detected in his delivery of some of his most savage lines.

This in Monty Woolley's first nationwide stage tour in this, his greatest success, and it is planned that he appear in all the key cities from New York to Seattle and return, before he ends his current tour at the home of Yale, his Alma Mater, New Haven, Conn. next May.
